Part of Lumenos Advisors: Complete Land Stewardship Solutions

Joel Den Haan draws on over twenty-five years' experience assisting faith-based, non-profit, and for-profit groups to understand who they are in today's environment, plan for their hopes and dreams, and implement their highest and best vision with their land and capital resources . With a decade of education and research into how people work together, along with extensive experience as a pastor, Joel Den Haan can lead the way to plans that are both inspiring and practical. Combined with a team of experienced non-profit and development professionals in the Lumenos Advisors network, we have the capacity to open new directions for your organization, your mission, and all your assets.

Joel Den Haan and Lumenos Advisors specialize first and foremost in assisting organizations to clarify and focus their mission and purpose within their local setting, offering practical planning, governance and development guidance that will help implement their hopes. We take a wholistic approach as we consider all of the property, purpose, and people resources that are present among us to build and support innovative new plans.

Together, we offer a deep network of skills and expertise to provide end-to-end support for your organization's decisions and project plans. We can bring you:

- expert governance, consensus development and conflict management skills;
- mission and values development work with language that truly engages the whole of your people, purpose, and property;
- stakeholder engagement resources that can help you draw upon the support and energy of the community all around;
- capital and facility analysis, to identify key building and financial challenges and opportunities; and
- capital project planning resources that will help you engage your property and your mission to the fullest.
